

Jeremy M. Rountree

Of Counsel

T: (410) 783-6389

F: (410) 783-6391

jroundtree@nilesbarton.com

Jeremy Rountree's practice includes advising insurers on transactional claims and coverage disputes.

Jeremy has been practicing law for over ten years, with notable experience in various prestigious roles. He has worked with the Maryland Office of the Attorney General, the United States Small Business Administration, as a Solo Practitioner, and at other law firms. His legal experience has included pharmaceutical mass tort defense, disaster relief lending, and advising entrepreneurs and non-profits on corporate and transactional matters.

In addition to his professional work, Jeremy has dedicated significant time to volunteering with the Community Law Center and has served as a member and Vice Chair of the Baltimore City Public Art Commission.

Bar Admissions

Maryland

Education

J.D., University of Baltimore School of Law, 2012

Certificate, Johns Hopkins University, Paul H. Nitze School of Advanced International Relations, 2010

BFA, Maryland Institute College of Art, 2005

Related Practice Areas

Business & Commercial

First Party Property

Insurance
Insurer Bad Faith
Litigation
Professional Liability
Reinsurance and Excess Lines
Representations & Warranties

Community Leadership

Baltimore City Public Art Commission, Member and Vice Chair (2012-2017)
Community Law Center, Volunteer